RISING MIDDLE CLASS, LOW MARKET SHARE LEAVE HEADROOM: CEO COOK

Apple flags double-digit growth, upbeat on India

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, May 1

APPLE CHIEF EXECUTIVE Tim Cook said on Friday that the company continues to see double-digit growth in India, describing the market as a huge opportunity driven by a rising middle class and low current penetration across product categories.

"I am over the moon excited about India," Cook said during the company's fiscal second-quarter earnings call, adding that India is the world's second-largest smartphone market and the third-largest PC market. "Despite doing extremely well there for quite some time, we still have a modest share. And so I think that really speaks to the opportunity that we have."

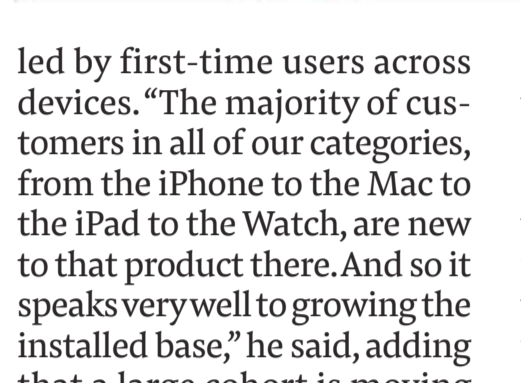

Cook, who is set to step down on September 1, will be succeeded by John Ternus. Cook said demand is being

Apple opens sixth retail store, stepping up physical expansion in India

Majority of buyers are first-time users across Apple devices

TIM COOK, CEO, APPLE
I am over the moon excited about India led by first-time users across devices. "The majority of customers in all of our categories, from the iPhone to the Mac to the iPad to the Watch, are new to that product there. And so it speaks very well to growing the installed base," he said, adding that a large cohort is moving into the middle class.

The company also pointed to retail expansion and market outreach. "We were also thrilled to open the doors to our sixth store in India. It has been wonderful to see how we have continued to grow in India in recent years," Cook said, linking the push to Apple's broader focus on emerging markets.

Chief Financial Officer Kevan Parekh said growth in India tracked broader emerging market trends across product lines. "iPhone grew double digits in the majority of markets we track, including... India," he said.

iPhone revenue rose 22% year-on-year to $57 billion in the March quarter, driven by the iPhone 17 lineup.

Parekh said Mac and iPad categories also saw traction in India. "We grew in both developed and emerging markets, with double-digit growth in many emerging markets, including India," he said, adding that more than half of iPad buyers globally were new to the product, with emerging markets contributing significantly.

The management reiterated that India's scale and relatively low installed base provide room for sustained expansion.

Gig workers' pay under pressure from oversupply

ANEESS HUSSAIN
Bengaluru, May 1

GIG DELIVERY WORKERS across food delivery and quick commerce platforms are seeing their earnings come under pressure as the supply of delivery partners grows faster than order volumes, staffing executives said, adding the imbalance may persist in the near term.

Eternal's January-March quarter results highlighted the divergence. In food delivery, average monthly active delivery partners rose 30% year-on-year to 576,000, while order volumes grew about 15%. In quick commerce, active partners jumped 121% to 409,000, outpacing a 93% rise in orders to 273.9 million.

Group CEO Albinder Dhindsa acknowledged the shift. "More part-timers are delivering, which raises active partners but reduces orders per shift," he said. The trend reverses last year's shortage, when rapid demand growth, particularly in quick commerce, outpaced onboarding. Some stores had partner-to-store ratios as low as 3:1.

"Last year's shortage was driven by a sharp demand spike... onboarding could not keep pace," Balasubramanian Anantha Narayanan, senior vice president at TeamLease Services, said. "Now, higher partner availability is improving platform capacity but lowering utilisation per partner," he added.

"With more partners competing for the same orders, earnings have become less predictable," said Deepesh Gupta of Adecco India.
